AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Responding further to Lynx's Counterclaim, Lynx's claims are barred if, as MRI reasonably anticipates, discovery establishes the following affirmative defenses:

1. Each of Lynx's claims fails, in whole or in part, to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.
2. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by Lynx's fraudulent conduct.
3. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the alleged statements by MRI giving rise to Lynx's claims are true.
4. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the alleged conduct by MRI giving rise to Lynx's claims is protected by an absolute or qualified privilege.
5. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the alleged statements by MRI giving rise to Lynx's claims were not made in commercial advertising or promotion.
6. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by doctrines of laches, waiver, estoppel and/or unclean hands.
7. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitations.
8. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by public policy.
9. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the parol evidence rule.
10. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by Lynx's failure to first perform its obligations.
11. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by Lynx's failure to properly notify MRI of alleged breach, thereby denying MRI an opportunity to remedy the alleged problem.
12. Lynx's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by statute of frauds.

13. Lynx is not entitled to injunctive relief because any injury to Lynx is not immediate or irreparable, and Lynx has an adequate remedy at law.

14. The relief sought by Lynx is legally and factually excessive under the doctrine of unjust enrichment.

15. Lynx's damages are barred, in whole or in part, by Lynx's failure to mitigate its damages.

16. All of Lynx's damages, if any, were caused by third persons over whom MRI has no control or right of control.

17. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, MRI has acted in good faith with regard to Lynx and has had reasonable grounds for believing its actions were not in violation of any law.

Prayer for Relief

WHEREFORE, as to Lynx's Counterclaim, MRI prays for the following relief:

A. A judgment for MRI and against Lynx, dismissing with prejudice Lynx's Counterclaim and all claims asserted therein against MRI;

B. A judgment that this is an exceptional case, and an award to MRI of its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest, including prejudgment interest, thereon; and

C. Such other and further relief as may be deemed just and appropriate.
